CHAPTER CHASERS

Join Upper Arlington Public Library for our After-School Book Club and Craft program, where imagination knows no bounds!

Each week, we'll dive into a new captivating book and unleash our creativity with fun, themed crafts. This program is designed to inspire a love for reading while encouraging artistic expression and collaboration among friends.
